

Families First launch

in Bishops Stortford

When?

Thursday 8 March
2018 (2 – 6:30pm)

Where?

The Charis Centre
B' Stortford
CM23 2JZ

What can I expect?

The event will provide professionals AND the public with refreshments and the opportunities:

-  to hear how Families First is transforming early help support for families
-  to learn about services that are supporting families in East Herts and how families can 'self-help' through Families First offers
-  to network and gather info with local early help services in the Families First Market Place
-  to attend Families First presentations – which will be repeated during the afternoon, so drop in and find out what Families First means for you!

There are East Herts District Council car parking facilities adjacent to the venue.

How can I get involved?

1. You can host a market stall for your Service or simply attend!

If you'd like to do either, please send an email (market stall holders: please include a short description of your service) to:

familiesfirst.support@hertfordshire.gov.uk

Registration for attendance is not mandatory but will help us with planning the event

2. Help us spread the word by inviting local families and your colleagues!
